NEWS CORPORATION, et al.,

Defendants.

CASTEL, U.S.D.J.

The determination of whether there is good cause under Rule 43(a) is properly made by the Court on a witness by witness basis. The parties should confer on the issue in the next 7 days and present a joint application to the Court. It is sub-optimal to first establish vague criteria and then run the risk of satellite litigation on whether a particular witness falls within the criteria. It is long past the time for all cards to be placed face up on the table.

SO ORDERED.
